

GERIATRIC MEDICINE FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Class of 2024

Darlene Moyer, MD

Residency: HonorHealth Family Medicine

Dr. Darlene Moyer graduated from Lycoming College with a Bachelor of Science degree in biology and attended George Washington University School of Medicine. She completed both her Family Medicine Residency at HonorHealth, and a Faculty Development Fellowship at the University of Arizona in 2008. During her early career, Dr. Moyer spent three years working as a hospitalist at HonorHealth, while also teaching for the Family Medicine Residency program in both the inpatient and outpatient settings. Dr. Moyer became a full-time Associate Director in 2011 and subsequently completed the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine Emerging Leaders Fellowship.

Dr. Moyer's clinical interests include hospital-based medicine, geriatrics, chronic disease management and medical simulation training. She has overseen the residency inpatient teaching service and has participated in and lead multiple HonorHealth committees. Currently, she serves as the physician chair for the HonorHealth Faculty Development Committee and the co-chair of the HonorHealth Network Simulation Committee. She has chosen formally to complete her Geriatric Fellowship in continued pursuit of clinical excellence and expertise in the area of patient care that she feels passionate about and enjoys most. HonorHealth has been her professional home and was a natural fit for Dr. Moyer's time in Fellowship. In her free time Dr. Moyer enjoys spending time with her husband, two daughters, and two dogs. Her hobbies include hiking, traveling, reading, painting and spending time outdoors.

Lindy Truong, MD

Residency: HonorHealth Family Medicine

Dr. Lindy Truong was born and raised in Houston, Texas. She attended Houston Baptist University where she earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Biology with a minor in Art Studio. Dr. Truong subsequently completed medical school at Texas Tech University Health Science Center at both the Lubbock and Amarillo campuses in Texas. She entered residency at HonorHealth in Scottsdale at the height of the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020. Throughout residency training, she organized quality improvement projects geared towards advancing care for older adults and gave presentations on a multitude of geriatric topics. Given her longstanding interest and passion in caring for geriatric patients, she is excited to continue her training within HonorHealth by pursuing a Geriatrics Fellowship.

Dr. Truong and her partner, Aaron, enjoy many outside interests including salsa and swing dancing (her favorite is a dance called the "Lindy Hop"), art, reading, and trying new restaurants. Together they take care of their two dogs, Loxy and Samantha, and bird named Greg.
