

4th Year Residents

CLASS OF 2020 – DERMATOLOGY RESIDENCY PROGRAM

Mitchell Manway, D.O.

Medical School: Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine

Dr. Manway completed a one year clinical research fellowship at Affiliated Dermatology and then began his residency training in July 2017. He received his undergraduate degree in Biology from Penn State University in University Park, Pennsylvania. Dr. Manway then earned his Doctorate of Osteopathic Medicine from the Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine in Erie, Pennsylvania. Following graduation, he completed a traditional internship at Manatee Memorial Hospital in Bradenton, Florida. He later went on to work at the Center for Clinical and Cosmetic Research in Aventura, Florida as a Dermatology Fellow. He is an active member of the American Osteopathic College of Dermatology.

Andrew Newman, D.O.

Medical School: Touro University

Dr. Newman began his residency training in July 2017. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in Biochemistry and Physiology from California State University- Long Beach, CA. He then spent 2 years studying pharmaceuticals at the University of Southern California before completing his Doctorate of Osteopathic Medicine at Touro University- CA. Dr. Newman then trained at McLaren-Oakland Hospital in Michigan where he completed his medical internship. He has certified advanced training in cosmetic injectables by MEDaesthetics Training. In addition to caring for his patients, he enjoys making music on guitar and piano or playing a round of golf with his friends and colleagues.