

ADDICTION MEDICINE FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

---

Class of 2022

Ian Bond, MD

Residency: University of Texas Southwest Medical Center

Dr. Ian Bond is originally from southern Louisiana. Dr. Bond completed his undergraduate degree in biochemistry at Louisiana State University in 1999. Dr. Bond obtained his MD degree from LSU Health Sciences Center in Shreveport, LA in 2003. Dr. Bond completed his residency in anesthesiology from the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center in Dallas, TX in 2007 and his fellowship in cardiothoracic anesthesiology from Emory University Medical Center in 2008. Dr. Bond was in both academic and private practice as an attending anesthesiologist from 2008-2018, mostly in Oklahoma City, OK.

Dr. Bond enjoys trying to be as physically active as time permits by walking, hiking, running, working out, swimming, and playing tennis. At this point in his life, he enjoys spending time with friends and helping others whenever and however he is able.

Rafik Saleh, MD

Residency: Hackensack Meridian Hospital Palisades

Dr. Rafik Saleh was born in Port Said, a beautiful city on the Mediterranean Sea in Egypt. He went to Cairo University School of Medicine then completed multiple residency programs in Internal Medicine, General Surgery and Preventive Medicine. Dr. Saleh really enjoys research, and he was selected as Loma Linda University Research Champion for 2020-2021 and he enriched his research experience by having MPH from Loma Linda University in California.

Dr. Saleh is married and has a girl and a boy, he enjoys spending time with his family, going to the zoo, relaxing on the beach, and reading history books. Dr. Saleh believes that everyone deserves a second chance in life, not only that, but we should never give up helping others.