

Discrimination is Against the Law

HonorHealth complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, religion or sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation, and gender identity). HonorHealth does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, religion, or sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation, and gender identity).

HonorHealth:

- Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:
 - o Qualified sign language interpreters
 - o Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)
- Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
 - o Qualified interpreters
 - o Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact HonorHealth's Civil Rights Coordinator, Amanda Tillitt.

If you believe that HonorHealth has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, religion, or sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation, and gender identity), you can file a grievance with:
