New Moms Support Group - Sonoran Crossing

Our New Moms Support Group at Sonoran Crossing Medical Center meets weekly* to provide social interaction, support and practical information for new moms and expecting moms in their 3rd trimester. Please join us with your baby (0 to 12 months) and meet other new and expecting mothers as you learn from their experiences, share your adventures, and gather information to assist you in parenting your child.

Chinese language support is also available. 此支持團體提供中文服務。

*This support group takes two-month interim breaks in the summer and the winter.
